

LATEST FOREIGN NEWS

EXTRA FOREIGN NEWS

Bloody Fight With Soudan Rebels
Cannibalism in Africa—Disappointment in England & America.

plosion — United States Training Ship.

LONDON, July 21.—Rumors asserting the issue of the Egyptian loan, the British government has instructed the Rothschilds to issue the loan in August. The consent of Romania is held to indicate the growth of friendly relations with England, and has caused a rise in all international stocks.

CHOLERA EPIDEMIC INCREASING.

MADRID, July 21.—In Spain, yesterday there were 2,417 new cases of cholera and 952 deaths. These included 19 cases in the 15 deaths in Madrid.

The disease has broken out in Guadalupe, Burgos, and Almeria.

A TERRIBLE EXPLOSION.

PARIS, July 21.—Dispatches from Algeria, on the Rhone, state that a terrible explosion occurred in that city the afternoon of the 19th. A dispatch from the city of 15 telegrams says that the explosion originated in a large gunpowder and petroleum warehouse, and that a number of persons were killed, some of whom were thought to be the number of victims has not yet been ascertained.

BLOODY FIGHT WITH SUDAN REBELS.

CAIRO. News has reached there from Kaokas to the effect that a large force of rebels attacked that place and made several attempts to carry it by assault. They were finally repulsed, and the rebels were following up the river, and capturing the boats. The rebels then captured the rebel camp, with 2,000 oxen and sheep and 700 rifles. The enemy has 3,000 men killed and wounded. The rebels are now in the Kaokas valley.

LONDON, July 21.—The news of the attack on Kaokas was sent to Cairo by Maj. Chermade. The attack took place on the 15th and 16th of June.

ANTISLAVERY IN AFRICA.

LONDON, July 21.—Intelligence has been received from West Africa, that the King of Dahomey, with many followers, on May 10, made a raid on the village under French protection, near Forécarree, and killed 100 persons, and committed massacres of the inhabitants and burned all their dwellings. One thousand youth and women were captured and carried back into Dahomey to be sacrificed to the gods.

DISAPPOINTMENT IN IRELAND.

DUBLIN, July 21.—The Freeman and Journal expresses profound disappointment over Lord Carnarvon's reply to the delegation of persons interested in the terlay to solicit his aid in securing government help for the bank. Earl Carnarvon, who was a personal friend of the king, sympathized and desired to help the bank, but stated that it was outside the power of the government to give direct aid to the institution, except to avoid the public calamity of a panic, of which there was practically no danger. The Journal declares that failure to restore the bank would plunge thousands of people in Ireland into despair and be a national calamity.

LONDON, July 21.—In the house of commons Sir Michael Hicks Beach, chancellor of the exchequer, in reply to Mr. Perzani, said that the government had had entailed upon it exceptional duties, but there was reason to believe that directors were ready to lend such assistance as might be required, and might be found consistent with the interests of the Bank of Ireland.

TONGKIN IS DISTURBED.

PARIS, July 21.—Gen. de Courcy telegraphs to the government as follows: "The province of Tonkin, under the command of Gen. de Male, Warpet, and Nguyen"

Toungku is still disturbed by marauders who have appeared in the northern delta. It is hoped that the proclamation recently issued by the regent Annam will improve matters in Toungku. It is also hoped to ameliorate matters in Annam by the French remaining here. Hue to propitiate the queen mother and the prince regent. Both are popular and powerful and are replacing the mandarins who were hostile to France. The French have occupied Fordoung without opposition. Thuyet's communications with Toungku have been cut off.

LONDON, July 21.—Mr. Robert Bourne, under foreign secretary, answering inquiries in the house of commons this afternoon, said that during May, 1881, M. Billing had offered Lord Lyons, British ambassador at Paris, to obtain the ransom of Gen. Gordon from El Malak for the sum of $250,000. Lord Lyons forwarded the offer without comment to Earl Granville, then British minister in Paris. The offer was refused.

The first condition of the offer was that its acceptance should be accompanied by a payment of $10,000 down to Earl Granville, after consultation with the cabinet.

ment, instructed Lord Lyons that, various reasons, he must decline offer.

WHEREABOUTS OF THE UNITED STATES SHIP.

LONDON, July 31.—The United naval training vessels Jamestown, Portsmouth, and Saratoga arrived at Madras on the 8th instant.

PROTEST TO SALTREBURY.

LONDON, July 31.—A number of the members of the House of Commons have united in a protest to Lord Salisbury against the recent concession to the nationalists.

THE RHODES WEATHER.

The signal office reports of last night showed cooler weather in the north-west which possibly means that the thermometer will fall the day or to-morrow in this city. The temperature yesterday was 78° in New York and Philadelphia it was the same. Baltimore was 98°.

Port Cheney, Colorado, aged 78 years, was overcome by the heat yesterday at the corner of Thirty-second and M streets. John Kirby, white, 78 years old, was found on the Virginia shore, near

OVERWORKED LADY CLERKS.—The rector of the mint has authorized the ployment of supernumeraries to relieve the ladies in the adjuster's office of Philadelphia mint—eighty-four in number—from overwork. These ladies DEAD AT HIS DESK.—Henry Krauskopf of Indiana, died of paralysis yesterday while at work at his desk in the state auditor's office. He was in his 56th year and was for twenty years in government service.

ent | employ.